SEPTEMBER 2024

Another sad Farewell

The 23rd of September was yet another sad day for the school. Mr. Arulramesh, our Art teacher passed away. He served the school for 23 long years under 3 principals. He was extremely dedicated to his work. He was much loved by the school community. He not only taught art, but helped with decorations for the various events of the school.

His mortal remains were brought to the school, and the school community paid their last respects to him. Rev .Esther Madurani offered prayers. He will be badly missed.

Remarkable O Level Results!

The Results of the GCE ordinary Level were released. 31 students have obtained a minimum of 5A's, and 6 of them have obtained 9 A's.

Moreover, Uduvil Girls' College is ranked 5th in the Valikamam Zone. This is a remarkable achievement, the best in the recent past. Our sincere thanks to the hardworking teachers, without whom this would not have been possible.
